Wait and See!

When I was growing up, I was very inquisitive. I questioned how things were done, how things were made, and I questioned authority – my parents' least favorite. My questions were mostly answered. But sometimes I would hear "Wait and See." For me, that was the worst response ever! It denied me of immediate gratification. Usually, the response meant one of three things:

1. Be patient, I don't know the answer right now
2. Be patient, I know the answer, but it is a surprise
3. Be patient and get away from me because you are driving me crazy.

When members ask about the future of the church, the little girl inside of me feels camaraderie with the person asking. Unfortunately, the question leads to the response, we must "Wait and See" the outcome of the May vote. But, instead of "Be patient," I feel God asking us to "Be Still and Know." In the words of Psalm 46: 10, whatever happens, know that God is still exalted among the nations and on earth. We won't know what to do until the vote happens. Until that time, join Pastor Lenore and I for "Conversations with the Pastors" after Sunday worship. Since we must wait, we may as well be productive and interactive.

March is Women’s History Month!

By Jane Grays

No country can ever truly flourish if it stifles the potential of its women and deprives itself of the contributions of half of its citizens.

Michelle Obama

March is designated as Women's History Month in The United Methodist Church, a month in which churches are encouraged to recognize and celebrate the lives and contributions of women to their communities and The United Methodist Church.

In the United States, Women's History Month traces its beginnings back to the first International Women's Day in 1911. In 1978, the school district of Sonoma, California participated in Women's History Week, an event designed around the week of March 8 (International Women's Day). In July 1979, a fifteen-day conference about women's history was held at Sarah Lawrence College, chaired by historian Gerda Lerner and co-sponsored by Sarah Lawrence College, the Women's Action Alliance, and the Smithsonian Institution. When its participants learned about the success of the Sonoma County's Women's History Week celebration, they decided to initiate similar celebrations within their own organizations, communities, and school districts. They also agreed to support an effort to secure a National Women's History Week. In February 1980, President Jimmy Carter issued a presidential proclamation declaring the week of March 8, 1980, as National Women's History Week. The proclamation stated, "From the first settlers who came to our shores, from the first American Indian families who befriended them, men and women have worked together to build this nation. Too often the women were unsung, and sometimes their contributions went unnoticed. But the achievements, leadership, courage, strength, and love of the women who built America were as vital as those of the men whose names we know so well. [Women’s History] ... is an essential and indispensable heritage from which we can draw pride, comfort, courage, and long-range vision. I ask my fellow Americans to recognize this heritage with appropriate activities during National Women’s History Week, March 2–8, 1980. I urge libraries, schools, and community organizations to focus their observances on the leaders who struggled for equality – Susan B. Anthony, Sojourner Truth, Lucy Stone, Lucretia Mott, Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Harriet Tubman, and Alice Paul....Understanding the true history of our country will help us to comprehend the need for full equality under the law for all our people.” In 1981, responding to the growing popularity of Women's History Week, Sen. Orrin Hatch (R-Utah) and Rep. Barbara Mikulski (D-Maryland) co-sponsored the first Joint Congressional Resolution...which authorized and requested the President to proclaim the week beginning March 7, 1982 as “Women’s History Week.” Throughout the next several years, Congress continued to pass joint resolutions designating a week in March as Women’s History Week. Schools across the country also began to have their own local celebrations of Women's History Week and even Women's History Month. By 1986, fourteen states had declared March as Women's History Month.

Sometimes we hear or see words in church and we don’t know what they mean. From time to time, the Lamplighter will highlight and explain some of these words for you. This month’s word is NARTHEX.

Narthex– we often see this in Emmanuel’s bulletin. It usually is referring to something happening there, such as “pecans are being sold in the narthex,” or “you can sign up in the narthex!” So, what is a narthex? According to yourdictionary.com a narthex is “an entrance hall leading to the nave of a church.” Now, this poses a problem because many of you are probably asking “what is a nave?” Well, the nave of the church is the section of the sanctuary where the congregation congregates on Sunday morning. At Emmanuel, this is the section of the sanctuary with the pews. That means the narthex is the hallway area outside of the sanctuary. Got it? Good! If you have any questions about words you have seen but don’t know what they are, feel free to email us at lamplighter@eumcbeltsville.com and we will find the answer for you!

Who Are We as the People Called Methodists?

By Rick Bergmann

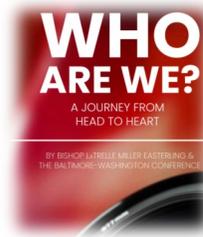

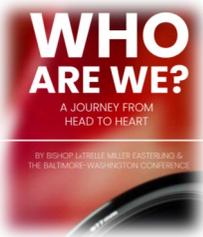

Our Wednesday Night Bible Study is going strong. For Lent, we are going to begin a study by our Bishop, Latrelle Easterling, entitled Who are We as the People Called Methodists? It is part of a larger study called Who Are We From Head to Heart.

Through this study we will explore “our identity as United Methodists shaped in the Wesleyan spirit. While first and foremost our identity is rooted in our understanding of God and in seeking to follow Jesus, there are uniquely Wesleyan ways of experiencing and expressing that. Methodism began as a spiritual movement, a response of the Holy Spirit to the needs of the world. In the six weeks of this study, we’ll delve into the theology and passion of this movement of faith.”

Each week we will have a discussion on the theme of that week’s reading as well as a video presentation from clergy throughout the conference. The both the scripture readings and the articles for the week are brief and the study doesn’t require a lot of prep time before hand. We encourage you to join us on Wednesdays beginning March 4 at 7 pm.

The Themes and Ideas We Will Study:

- MARCH 4: OUR THEOLOGY OF GRACE
- MARCH 11: OUR WESLEYAN DISCIPLESHIP
- MARCH 18: OUR WAY OF UNDERSTANDING...
- MARCH 25: ON JOHN WESLEY, THE RESISTER
- APRIL 1: OUR FOUNDATIONAL DOCTRINE
- APRIL 8: ON WHAT REALLY HAPPENED IN 1968

Is a time to GROW closer to JESUS

MEMORY VERSE

Did you remember last month’s verse?
Are you ready for the next one?
Here it is:

Job 5:8-11 Common English Bible (CEB): The answer is God

8 But I would seek God, put my case to God, 9 who does great things beyond comprehension, wonderful things without number; 10 who provides rain over the earth’s surface, sends water to the open country, 11 exalts the lowly, raises mourners to victory

New to the Emmanuel Community...

Community outreach is the lifeblood of any church. Working with community organizations either within the church walls or out in the neighborhood is vital to our community. You may have noticed that there are a some new groups who are meeting at the church on a regular basis. For years, the church has been host to many community organizations such as the Boy Scouts of America, the Depression and Bipolar Support Alliance, the Girl Scouts of the United States of America, and Narcotics Anonymous. Emmanuel added two more to the list this year, Beltsville Community Cats and UpStage Artists, Incorporated. Both of these community organizations are 501c3 non-profit groups looking to make a difference in the community.

Beltsville Community Cats is an organization whose mission is to “To work with residents and businesses to humanely manage and reduce the number of free roaming "community" cats in Beltsville, Maryland.” The organization provides many services including trapping stray cats throughout the Beltsville Community, helping the trapped cats get either spayed or neutered, coordinating stays of cats that have been trapped, including the night the cat was trapped and post-surgery hold up time, and placing young kittens in foster homes. They meet regularly at Emmanuel and are always looking for volunteers. Emmanuel members who are founding members and currently involved include Sally Rhodes and Bobbie Deegan. Learn more about them on the Beltsville Community Cats Facebook page or at their website www.beltsvillecats.net.

Some scenes from UpStage Artists "The Carol Burnett Show"

UpStage Artists, Incorporated is a local community theater troupe whose current goals are to bring high quality theatre and arts programs to the general population and underserved residents of Maryland and to produce innovative and approachable theatre classics, as well as new works. They also are working on adding an education component to their program down the line. UpStage Artists began with a group of friends who have spent many years working in various community theaters and decided that they wanted to bring theater to a larger audience in the area. They are currently working on producing 3 shows, the first, Thanks for the Laughter: A Tribute to the Carol Burnett Show, was held last month and was a great success. As part of their goal of presenting new works, their next show is an evening of 10-12 minute one act plays from Jeff Dunne. Jeff is a local playwright who lives in the greater Baltimore area. His work has been featured around the country. In the fall, they are planning an evening of Edgar Allan Poe and other scary stories for Halloween. All of their auditions and performances are open to the public. Emmanuel Member Rick Bergmann is one of the founders of UpStage Artists. Mike Hatton, Greg Stiggers, and Gary Heath have worked with them as well. If you have ever had the acting bug or would like to work backstage, they would love to have you. You can find out more information at www.upstageartists.com.

It's because of members like you that Emmanuel is able support community groups like these!

News from Nan McCurdy at Give Ye Them to Eat (GYTTE)

By Lorna Marselas

GYTTE will have an intermediate course with the Health Promoters from March 8 - 14. In December, GYTTE hosted a group of 10 women and one teenager from Washington, Pennsylvania, Texas, and California. The group got to know Methodists from other places and built stone walks and stone structures for troughs for the goats and sheep.

In January, GYTTE hosted a group from Virginia with three new workers and seven who had worked with GYTTE several times. This group also built two new troughs for the animals and began a home for Veronica and her family who had been living in a makeshift house behind her mom's home. The Palapa was scraped, spackled and painted. The group also spent time with former staff member Juan Lauro who is very debilitated with little use of his arms and legs. He enjoyed it and told some great stories.

GYTTE's regular training activities continue and they facilitate day workshops and tours of the center by groups—schools, universities or church groups.

SUNDAY MORNING? WHY, YES, I'M FREE*

Thom S. Rainer, the founder of Church Answers, an online community for church leaders, asked ministers and churchgoers alike to share the best excuses they've heard for skipping church:

- ◇ "I couldn't get the lid off of the peanut butter."
- ◇ "The church is too close to drive and too far to walk"
- ◇ "Both of my girlfriends attend church there."
- ◇ "The pastor stays in the bible too much."
- ◇ "The pastor is too attractive. When I see him preaching, I have impure thoughts and I am distracted."

- ◇ "My wife cooked bacon for breakfast, and our entire family smelled like bacon."
- ◇ "The worship leader pulls up his pants too often. It's distracting."
- ◇ "I always get hemorrhoids on Sundays."
- ◇ "Someone called me 'brother' instead of using my name."

Did you know there is a song called Methodist Pie? It is an old folk song that dates back to the 1920's. You can find several versions of it on YouTube. One of the most well known versions can be found at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=57FbxliP-1E>. Here are the lyrics to this interesting song:

Verse 1: I was down to camp meetin' the other afternoon
To hear them shout and sing
For to tell each other how they love one another
And to make hallelujah ring
There was old Uncle Daniel and Brother Ebenezer
With his lame gal, Sue
Aunt Polly and Melinda and old Mother Bender
Well I never seen a happier crew

Chorus: Oh little children I believe
Oh little children I believe
Oh little children I believe
I'm a Methodist till I die
I'm a Methodist a Methodist 'tis my belief
Methodist till I die
When old grim death comes a-knocking at the door,
I'm a Methodist till I die

Verse 2: Well they all go there just to have a good time
And to eat their grub so sly
Have applesauce butter with sugar in the gourd
And a great big Methodist pie
Well you ought to hear the ringing
When they all get to singin' that good old bye and bye
See Jimmy McGee in the top of a tree
Saying how is this for high (Chorus)

Verse 3: Then they catch a hold of hands and march around the ring
Kept a singin' all the while
You'd think it was a cyclone coming through the air
You can hear them shout a half a mile
Then the bell rings loud and the great big crowd
Breaks ranks and up they fly
While I took board on the sugar in the gourd
And I cleaned up the Methodist Pie (Chorus)
**You can find the recipe for Methodist Pie on Page 10

Emmanuel Hosts UMW Leadership Day

By Rick Bergmann

On Saturday, February 15 Emmanuel played host to around 100 women from all over the conference. It was a day for them to come together in fellowship and the learn about the work done by the UMW on a district level. Leaders and members from all over the Washington-East District were in attendance for this all day training. The ladies enjoyed a time of fellowship and breakfast before convening in the sanctuary for a presentation by UMW district leaders. After the presentation, they met in smaller break-out groups to hold smaller, more intimate conversations. The day was a wonderful success for the UMW. Thank you to Becky Cavallo, Jane Grays and all of the UMW leadership team for putting this day together. Check out some pics from this wonderful day below!
