UpStage Artists Presents: “The Best Christmas Pageant Ever”

UpStage Artists, is gearing up for its final show for the 2023 season, Barbara Robinson’s “The Best Christmas Pageant Ever!” The play is based on her novel of the same name. In this hilarious Christmas classic, a couple struggling to put on a church Christmas pageant is faced with casting the Herdman kids – probably the most inventively awful kids in history. You won't believe the mayhem – and fun – when the Herdmans collide head-on with the story of Christmas. Show dates for “The Best Christmas Pageant Ever” are December 1, 2, 8, 9 at 7:30 pm and December 3 and 10 at 2 pm at Emmanuel. Tickets are on sale at www.upstageartists.com

Community Announcements

~The BWC's Committee on the Status and Role of Women (COSROW) will hold Zoom listening sessions for clergy parents on Thursday, Nov. 16, at 8 p.m. and Monday, Nov. 27, at 2 p.m. The purpose of these sessions is to hear from clergy about their experiences with pregnancy, childbirth, adoption, fostering and raising children within the local church. The committee hopes to create training opportunities for local congregations and, if needed, draft legislation to support clergy parents. Sign up for the event. If you are unable to attend a session but would like to share your experiences or concerns confidentially with COSROW, email co-chair the Rev. Kate Mackereth Fulton.

~The United Methodist Church has released the 2022 State of the Church Report. This offering centers around how the people of The United Methodist Church have dug deeper into our Wesleyan roots to reclaim, revive and renew our identity as United Methodists. See a video version.

~Grief Share: Surviving the Holidays -- Davidsonville UMC is working with Kalas Funeral Home, at 2973 Solomons Island Road in Edgewater, to provide the encouragement, support and valuable tools needed to help survive grief and sadness during the holiday season. The event, which is free, will be on Nov. 19 at 2 pm. Learn more and register. This ministry is part of Davidsonville's work with the BWC's Catalyst Initiative, a congregational vitality pathway.
