Misc. Announcements

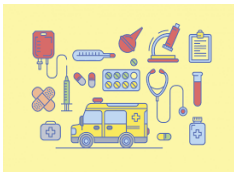

Prince George's County Animal Services Facility and Adoption Center (ASFAC): Effective Thursday, August 17, the Prince George's County Animal Services Facility and Adoption Center (ASFAC) will temporarily close to the public due to an outbreak of canine influenza to quarantine, treat, and care for the affected animals. The canine influenza virus is one of the viral causes of kennel cough. It does not affect humans but is highly contagious for dogs and can be fatal. For more information about animal services and for updates, contact the ASFAC at 301-780-7200.

Church Interpreting Academy for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing

International Week of The Deaf runs from September 19-25. Academy is Sept. 23, 9:30 a.m. to noon, on Zoom. The Baltimore-Washington Conference has a rich history of ministry with the Deaf community. In September, we celebrate the contributions of those who are Deaf and hard of hearing and expand efforts to be in ministry with them. Learn more.
